

Cardboard Boat Races on the Crow River - Overview

Design and build a person-powered cardboard boat capable of racing a 50-yard course. Boat design is left to the builders - let your imagination take over! Celebrity judges will help inspect, time and award all prizes. Judges will also make the official determination when a boat is no longer fit to compete. Crew costumes and themes are encouraged! Race elements will include an on-land challenge tied to cherry pie; details for the land challenge will be kept secret until race day.
